Statement on the University of Worcester's approach to the payment of tax

The University of Worcester and its subsidiaries, conduct their activities with integrity, transparency and fairness. They are committed to the prevention of the facilitation of tax evasion as they recognise the importance of fostering a positive culture of tax compliance and maintaining the confidence of students, staff, partner organisations, other customers and the tax authorities.

The University of Worcester and its subsidiaries do not and will not work with others who do not share their commitment to preventing the facilitation of tax evasion.

(Review date January 2021)