Latest research & publications

Our research findings are disseminated throughout a number of publications so that our findings and innovative ideas can be developed further by the international research community.

WRaP is an online catalogue of material produced by members of the University and contains details of articles, conference papers, book chapters and publications.

Recent publications

Campbell, V., Nolan, M. (2015) A qualitative study exploring how the aims, language and actions of Yoga for Pregnancy teachers may impact upon women’s self-efficacy for labour and birth, Women and Birth. DOI: http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.wombi.2015.04.007

Sealey, C. (2016) Wither Multiculturalism? [Note: this is an Epub ahead of print – will not be in print until November 2016]

Snelling, P.C. (2016) The metaethics of nursing codes of ethics and conduct Nursing Philosophy [on line] early access head of publication

The need for evidence-based responses to address intimate partner violence perpetration among male substance misusers. Gilchrist, G., Radcliffe, P., McMurran, M., Gilchrist, E. 26482015 December 10, 2015: Criminal Behaviour and Mental Health: Criminal Behaviour and Mental Health

© University of Worcester Henwick Grove, WR2 6AJ Tel: 01905 855000 - Last reviewed: Friday, 04 August 2017

Page can be found: Home / Discover Worcester / Academic departments / Institute of Health and Society / Health and Society Research / Latest research & publications

http://www.worcester.ac.uk/discover/latest-research-publications-health.html