Sunday 24 June 2012, 10am-3pm

Thursday 6 September 2012, 5-7pm

Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 September 2012, 10am-3pm

The best way to get a feel for what the University of Worcester is all about is to visit us at an Open Event. Open Events give you the chance to find out more about the type of academic and social life you can expect here.

You will have the chance to speak to current students and lecturers on the varied and wide range of part-time, flexible and full-time courses we offer. You will also have the opportunity to have a tour of our facilities, including new science laboratories, computing and graphical design suites and sports venues.

Our next Open Event is an Undergraduate Open Day on 24 June 2012 (10am-3pm).

Planning your day

Study choices, accommodation preferences, general University queries and your own hobbies and interests can all influence what you want to get out of your time here. The great thing about our Open Events is that they're flexible – you can turn up anytime between the start and the end of the event and structure your afternoon with as much or as little as you'd like.

It may be useful to try and plan what you want to find out on the day beforehand. Use our checklist to help.

Tips for making the most of your day:

Coming to university is about more than just life on campus. Venture into Worcester itself to see the bigger picture.

Make sure you take a campus tour so that you can see the facilities for yourself. Don't forget the accommodation if you're thinking about living in Halls.
