21. Indicators of quality and standards

The University underwent a QAA Institutional Audit in March 2011. The audit confirmed that confidence can be placed in the soundness of the institution's current and likely future management of the academic standards of its awards and the quality of the learning opportunities available to students. The audit team highlighted several aspects of good practice, including the student academic representative (StARs) initiative, the proactive approach which supports the student experience for disabled students, the comprehensiveness of the student online environment (SOLE), the wide range of opportunities afforded to students to enhance their employability, the institution's commitment to enhancement, and the inclusive approach to working with its collaborative partners.

Periodic Review

The latest Periodic Review undertaken in November 2014 concluded that confidence can be placed in the soundness of the management of the academic standards of the FdA Teaching & Learning and in the quality of the learning opportunities available to students.

NSS and UW Student Survey outcomes from 2014 demonstrate students' positive overall evaluation of the course. These results, in part, drive the enhancement plan set constructed as a result of the annual course evaluation.

22. Graduate destinations, employability and links with employers

Graduate destinations

Graduates are expected to seek employment working in statutory, voluntary and commercial organisations. Examples of the types of paid employment following the completing of the Foundation Degree include those in-

Educational settings including roles such as

- Teaching assistants including Higher Level TA equivalents
- Early years practitioners and setting managers
- Parent support Advisers
- Specialist support

Other work based settings including

- Children's centres
- Employees for children's charities

Each year between 65 and 90% of the students progress to a Top-Up with the vast majority choosing the BA Professional Practice.

Progression to Linked Honours Degree(s)/Top-Up Degree(s)

The BA (Hons) Professional Practice, approved in 2009, provides a progression route for students on the FDs, as well as others, providing opportunity for those from across phases of education-related employment and volunteering to access an undergraduate degree. Principles of widening access and participation apply across the provision as a whole. Students successfully completing the Foundation Degree in Teaching and Learning are eligible to apply for a place on this course to the BAPP Honours Degree.

Students will be notified of the appropriate time to apply for the BAPP, the application will be made via students' SOLE pages.

Student employability

The Foundation Degree should enhance student employability in several ways. Effective professional practices and values will be established and strengthened during the two years of the Course (e.g. the ability to meet deadlines, to prepare well, and to communicate effectively within a formal context). Fundamental to this is the constant comparison and evaluation, within the course's design and delivery, of theory to practice. Thus, students enhance their employability by using and developing a range of different skills in different contexts, and by bringing learning from one context to the other.

Strategies to promote student employability include conferences and careers fairs, individual/specialist advice and guidance given by Programme managers and academic tutors and scrutiny of job application forms and mock interviews.

Please note: This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if s/he takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the learning outcomes, content and teaching, learning and assessment methods of each module can be found in associated course documentation e.g. course handbooks, module outlines and module specifications.
