

A Design for Life?

High-Quality Curriculum Design and Pedagogy

Conversations in Primary Education

A University of Worcester &
NaPTEC Conference

22 June 2023
Worcester

The National Primary Teacher Education Council (NaPTEC) and the University of Worcester have a long-standing relationship and are united in a shared ambition: outstanding teachers inspiring outstanding learning.

This half-day conference will explore perspectives in relation to high-quality curriculum design and pedagogy to support learning and progress. Curriculum now, curriculum how and curriculum future will be considered in addition to broader, essential conversations related to primary education.

The event will be hosted at the University of Worcester's St John's Campus (Worcester).

Fee: £70 (Lunch will be provided).
