

Cluster for Research into Coaching (CRiC)

5th International Coaching Conference

4th-5th September 2019, University of Worcester, UK.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The organising committee of CRiC2019 is delighted to invite abstracts for individual papers to be presented at CRiC2019. Each individual presentation will comprise a 20 minute delivery followed by a short time for questions. Each paper will be clustered into a coherent symposia of approximately two other similarly-themed submissions. Each symposia will be chaired by a peer from the CRiC community.

Your abstract should be aligned to one of the conference themes which comprise:

- The role, value and professional learning of coach developers
- The multidisciplinary considerations of decision making in coaching
- Inclusive coaching practice, policy and education
- Contemporary debates in sports coaching practice

In order to submit your paper, please complete the CRiC2019 submission form including an abstract of up to 500 words and email to cric2019@worc.ac.uk by 4pm on Friday 15th March 2019.

Following submission, each abstract will be peer-reviewed by two members of the scientific committee and you will subsequently be notified by email of our decision as to whether to accept your paper.

Reviewing criteria:

- Clarity of the focus of the research
- Originality of the research
- Rigour of the research
- Significance of the research for sports coaching practice, policy or theory
