

Global Action on Personhood GAP in Dementia Core Group Membership

Those indicated below have all actively said that they are happy to be contacted by others for the purpose of networking and information.

Name	Job role & contact details	Network and expertise
Australia
Prof Elizabeth Beattie, PhD, RN, FGSA Australia	Director, Dementia Collaborative Research Centre: Carers & Consumers. Director, Qld Dementia Training Study Centre, School of Nursing, The Queensland University of Technology, Brisbane, Australia. elizabeth.beattie@qut.edu.au	Psychogeriatric nursing science and practice and research. Broad network across aged care and dementia consumer, provider and academic areas. Member, College of Nursing Aged Care Interest Group. Broad network across consumers, providers and academics in Australia, US, Canada particularly. Fellow Gerontological Society of America. Alumnae of the Hartford Foundation Member, Nursing Research Interest Group, GSA Hold 4 adjunct positions, 2 in Australia and 2 in the US. Editorial Board member of 3 gero- nursing journals.
Christine Bryden PSM Australia	Christine Bryden AM PSM Dementia advocate and author www.christinebryden.com	A former science advisor to Australia's Prime Minister, Christine was diagnosed with dementia in 1995 and has written four books: Who will I be when I die? Dancing with Dementia, Nothing About Us, Without Us (Jessica Kingsley Publishers) and Before I Forget (Penguin Australia). Christine was a member of the Alzheimer's Disease International Board (2003-2006) and Alzheimer's Australia Consumer Dementia Research Network (2010-2015). She is a member of Alzheimer's Australia Dementia Research Foundation Scientific Panel, Queensland's State-wide Dementia Clinical Network Steering Committee and the Cognitive Impairment Advisory Group of the Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care. She was made a Member of the Order of Australia for her advocacy work.
Prof Lynn Chenoweth Australia	Lynn.Chenoweth@SESI.AHS.HEALTH.NSW.GOV.AU	Extensive research and clinical collaborations through the Dementia Collaborative Research Centres, University of NSW and Queensland University of Technology, the Centre for Mechatronic and Robotic Engineering (Aged Care group) and the Centre for Health Services Management, University of Technology Sydney, the Dementia

		Training Study Centres in Australia and through partnerships with over 50 large and small Australian health and aged care provider groups. Coordinated a number of multidisciplinary RCTs in person-centred dementia care and one RCT of person-centred dementia care environments. Research partnerships in person-centred dementia care and supportive health and aged care systems with the following international university research groups: Bradford and Leeds, UK; Swansea, Wales; New York, UCLA and Johns Hopkins, USA; Hong Kong Polytechnic, HK; and Macao Nursing School, China. Member, Alzheimer's Association International Conference Research Committees.
Dr Sandra (Sam) Davis, Australia	Course Coordinator, Applied Gerontology Postgraduate Studies, Flinders University sam.davis@flinders.edu.au	Lead on Encouraging Better Practice initiative to rollout out the Dementia Dynamics Toolkit to all Australian residential care homes. Postgraduate teaching in online dementia-specific topics. Mentor with Vic/Tas Dementia Training Study Centre fellowship program. Member of Alzheimer's Association International Society to Advance Alzheimer's Research and Treatment (ISTAART). Member of Gerontological Society of America (and their Dementia Interest Group).
Prof Richard Fleming, PhD, Australia	Director, NSW/ACT Dementia Training Study Centre, University of Wollongong, Australia. rfleming@uow.edu.au	Consultant on environmental design to many aged and health care services across Australia. Leader of the Environment and Technology Node of the Dementia Collaborative Research Centre – Assessment and Better Care. Founder and Executive Editor of the Australian Journal of Dementia Care. Member of the Minister's Dementia Advisory Group. Consultant on environmental design and person centred care to health and aged care organisations in Japan, China, Singapore and the UK.
Prof Yun-Hee Jeon, RN, PhD, Australia	Yun-Hee Jeon, Professor of Chronic Disease and Ageing Yun-Hee.jeon@sydney.edu.au The University of Sydney, Sydney Nursing School http://sydney.edu.au/nursing/staff/profiles/yun-hee.jeon.php	Yun-Hee is a registered nurse, academic and leading Australian researcher in psychogeriatrics and gerontology. Yun-Hee's research focuses on developing innovative and creative approaches to improving the health and wellbeing of older people with dementia, depression or other chronic illnesses. She is committed to improving care quality and service delivery for these vulnerable

		population groups, developing workforce capacity in aged care, and establishing evidence- and practice-based benchmarks and tools for assessment and outcome measurement in dementia. Her research also explores in-depth, the experiences of people with chronic illness and their carers to help inform and provide context to research and policy. She is recognised for her contributions to building the evidence for person-centred care, a philosophy that she says underpins all of her research.
Bernie McCarthy MAPS MCCLP, Australia	Lecturer, Flinders University, Adelaide, Managing Director McCarthy Psychology Services Pty Ltd Bernie@mccarthypsychology.com.au	Advanced trainer DCM, consults to aged care organisations throughout Australia implementing person centred approach, developed e-learning tools in person centred approach and Diploma of Dementia Care Leadership (nationally recognised qualification), lecturer Psychological Dimensions of Ageing. Member International DCM Implementation Group, conducted training in DCM in Singapore, Member Gerontological Society of America
Virginia Moore B. App Sci OT Australia	Independent Dementia Consultant and Trainer at Virginia Moore Consulting Western Australia	Expertise in the development of psychosocial and physical environments to promote autonomy and wellbeing of people living with dementia. Introduced person-centred approach at an organisational level within a major care provider in Perth WA. Introduced DCM into Australia. DCM trainer and practitioner. Life Member Alzheimer's Australia WA Churchill Fellow and founder member of the International DCM group. Past Vice President Alz Aust WA
Prof Wendy Moyle, PhD Australia	Program Director, Menzies Health Institute, QLD w.moyle@griffith.edu.au https://experts.griffith.edu.au/academic/w.moyle	Management board member of Dementia Collaborative Research Centre & Dementia Training & Study Centre. Renowned researcher & speaker on QoL and dementia; Social robotics & Assistive Technologies & Dementia; Complementary Medicine & Dementia. Member of the World Health Organization Consultation Group on the Classification of Behavioural and Psychological Symptoms in Neurocognitive disorders for ICD-11; Co-Chair of the International Psychogeriatric (IPA) Nurses' Special Interest Group; IPA Board of Directors; Advisory Board Member, Centre for Gerontological Nursing, The Hong Kong Polytechnic
Kate Swaffer, PhD	Consultant, Author, Advocate, Activist,	Chair, CEO and co-founder of Dementia

Candidate, MSc (Dementia Care), BPsych, BA, Chef, Grad Dip Grief Counselling, RN, Australia	Speaker, Living beyond dementia. Specific focus on discrimination, human rights, stigma and improving the post diagnostic support and pathways, and the care of people with dementia	Alliance International; Member of the World Dementia Council, Board member, Alzheimer’s Disease International, Member, Dignity in Care Action Group and Chair of the Alzheimer’s Australia Dementia Advisory Committee. International Fellow at Canterbury Christ Church University, Honorary Associate Fellow with the Faculty of Science, Medicine and Health, University of Wollongong (UOW), a current PhD candidate. She completed an MSc in Dementia Care in 2014 and is a retired nurse. She is well published and her first book on book on dementia, What The Hell Happened to My Brain?: Living Beyond Dementia, was released in 2016; her second book on dementia is being released in September 2016. Her research interests include dementia, stigma, disability rights, rehabilitation, Prescribed Disengagement®, language and human rights.
Canada
Prof Habib Chaudhury, PhD, Canada	Chair and Professor, Department of Gerontology, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, Canada chaudhury@sfu.ca http://www.sfu.ca/gerontology.html Centre for Research on Personhood in Dementia (CRPD) http://crpd.ubc.ca/	Extensively linked with network of researchers and care providers in dementia care in North America, particularly in the area of responsive built environments for persons with dementia. Currently member of the British Columbia provincial Dementia Friendly Communities Advisory Committee. Current international research and project collaborators include: Bradford Dementia Group, UK; Alzheimer’s Catalunya, Spain; Interdisciplinary Aging Research, Goethe University, Germany.
Prof Sherry Dupuis, PhD, Canada	Professor in Recreation and Leisure Studies and co-lead of the Partnerships in Dementia Care Alliance at the University of Waterloo (PiDC) Alliance University of Waterloo, Waterloo, ON Canada sldupuis@uwaterloo.ca https://uwaterloo.ca/partnerships-in-dementia-care/	Extensive research and professional experience in person-centred, relational, and authentic partnership models of care. Co-leading a culture change in dementia care initiative in Canada. Served on many regional, provincial and national advisory groups. Expertise in critical participatory action research and arts-based approaches as a means of promoting personal transformation and social change in dementia and long-term care.
France
Prof Pierre Krolak-Salmon, MD, PhD France	Head of the Institute for Elderly of the Clinical and Research Memory Centre of Lyon and of Research Centre for Elderly-Brain-Frailty http://www.fcmrr.fr/cmrr.php	Professor Pierre Krolak-Salmon is a neurologist and geriatrician at the University Hospital of Lyon (France), Involved in : the French Federation of Memory Centres (Vice President),

	Pierre.krolak-salmon@chu-lyon.fr	in the new French National Plan on Neurodegenerative diseases (responsible for the Measure 1 on Diagnosis and post-diagnosis supports), and in the new European Joint action on dementia (responsible of the workpackage on Diagnosis and post-diagnosis supports)
Iceland
Prof Jon Snaedal MD, Iceland	Head of Memory Clinic, Geriatric Department, Landspítali University Hospital, Reykjavik, Iceland	Participating in developing novel diagnostic methods in neurodegenerative disorders, active in genetic research in AD and responsible for person-centred day care service. Member of the steering committee of the Nordic Network for Dementia Diagnostics. Member of ISTAART of the Alzheimer Association. Founding member of the International College of Person Centred Medicine
Italy
Rabih Chattat Italy	Associate professor of clinical psychology . University of Bologna. rabih.chattat@unibo.it Consultant of Regional authorities on Psychosocial Interventions in dementia	Research and teaching on psychosocial interventions in Dementia. Partner in national (DemCaregivers) and European projects on psychosocial interventions in dementia and with elderly (FP7-IMPACT, JPND-MeetingDem, AAL-Motion). Active within national and regional network on person centered care and psychosocial interventions in dementia. Member of the regional task-force on person centered care and humanization of care in Intensive care units. Board member of INTERDEM and member of IPA.
Dr Samantha Pradelli, MA, Clinical Psychol UK Italy.	Center for the care and support of people with dementia and their caregivers; ULSS 3 Bassano del Grappa. Italy samanthapradelli@virgilio.it	Active within Italy in person centred research, education and practice development. Member of AMAD Italian Alzheimer's Caregivers Association, member of FREIA Italian Psychogerontological Association. Member of INTERDEM and the International DCM Implementation Group
Japan
Dr Yutaka Mizuno, MD. PhD Japan	Associate Director, Imaise Mental Care Centre. Director of Dementia Medical Centre. mizuno@anzu.or.jp	Dr Mizuno has been embedding PCC in hospital ward and day services to support people with dementia to feel useful and engaged with society. He and his staff ended physical restraint and chemical restraint thirteen years ago. Leader, person-centred research, education and practice development in Japan since 2003; Board Member of the Japanese Society for Dementia Care, Councillor of Japanese Psychogeriatric Society. Member of the International

		DCM Implementation Group since 2003. Author of Person Centred Care in practice (Japanese) translated in Taiwan and South Korea.
Yasuko Murata, Japan	President of Japanese Society for Person-Centred Dementia Care NPO Tokyo, Japan	Since 2008 offering training, research and consultancy on person centre care and DCM, DCM Trainer; DCM manager of Obu Research and Training Center of Dementia Care. Person-centred dementia care by Brooker in 2010 as a co-translater
Ms. Michiko Nakagawa, Japan	michikid@kk.ij4u.or.jp	Wife of a person living with dementia Translator/Interpreter of person-centred texts and speeches. Member of NPO, Japanese Society for Person-Centred Care.
Yuko Nakamura, M.A.(Education), Japan	Chief of Training Division, OBU Dementia Care Research and Training Centre	Advanced trainer DCM, Member of person centred research, education and practice development in Japan since 2005; Member of the Japanese Society for Dementia Care, Member of the International DCM Implementation Group
Prof Mizue Suzuki, Japan	Professor, Hamamatsu University School of Medicine, Faculty of Nursing	Basic trainer DCM, nursing researcher Board Member of Japanese Society of Nursing Research and Japanese Society for fall Prevention. Councilor of Japanese Academy of Gerontological Nursing. Member of Care Dependency International research project with Dr. Dijkstra (Netherlands). Member of Cross-cultural comparison of BPSD and factors associated with BPSD in Asian countries
Netherlands
Prof Dr Myrra Vernooij-Dassen, The Netherlands	Scientific Institute Quality of Health Care Radboud Alzheimer Centre Nijmegen, The Netherlands www.iqhealthcare.nl www.interdem.org	Memorabel, national Dutch initiative on dementia research, Chair INTERDEM Member scientific advisory board Joint Programme Neurodegenerative disease (JPND). Visiting professor Bradford University. Honorary visiting professor Gadjah Mada University Yogyakarta, Indonesia
Prof Rose-Marie Dröes, PhD, The Netherlands	Professor of Psychosocial care for people with dementia; head of the research group Care and Support in Dementia of the Dept of Psychiatry, VU University medical center and Regional institute for Mental health care GGZ in Geest in Amsterdam rm.droes@vumc.nl	Research on psychosocial methods in dementia care; president National Working Group of Meeting Centres for people with dementia and carers; Member Advisory Board Dutch Institute for Quality of Care and the core group Practice improvement program Deltaplan Dementia. Years of experience in international projects psychosocial care; Project coordinator of JPND-MEETINGDEM; Member of INTERDEM, IPA; and EAGP
Norway
Dr Anne Marie Mork	Researcher and Post doc at Norwegian	Active within Norway in person-centred

Rokstad, PhD, RN, Norway	National Advisory Unit on Ageing and Health and Associate Professor at Molde University College anne.marie.rokstad@aldringoghelse.no www.aldringoghelse.no	care research, education and practice development. Member of the Norwegian Health Directorate core group to develop national guidelines for dementia care Wrote the book: Se hvem jeg er! Personsentrert omsorg ved demens (Eng: See who I am! Person-centred approach in dementia care). Member of the International Psychogeriatric Association (IPA), INTERDEM and the International Dementia Care Mapping (DCM) Implementation Group
Portugal
Patricia Paquete, Portugal, OT	Patrícia Paquete, Occupational Therapist Funder and CEO of Humanamente,Lda info@humana-mente.com www.humana-mente.com	DCM evaluator /Dementia care trainer working /Was the manager of the first day care centre and in home care just for people with dementia and pioneer in Portugal in introducing person centred approach in Portugal. Member of the DCM International Implementation Group
Singapore
Carol Fusek, Singapore	Managing Director, Skills will Travel Pte Ltd; services cover: Facilitating organization learning and development, Executive coaching Leading Change, Strategic planning and logistics fusech@singnet.com.sg	A lifetime Member of Alzheimer's Disease Association, Singapore. Active in delivering training on the Dementia Care Mapping (DCM) method, conducting workshops on Person Centered approach to care, and assisting care organizations with creating a PC culture. Member of the DCM International Implementation Group Member of Singapore Person Centered Approach Community of Practice team
Spain
Elena Fernández Gamarra, MSc, MBA diploma, Catalonia, Spain.	Psychologist and business administration certification. License Number 9711 (Catalonia's National Council of Psychology) Alzheimer Catalunya Fundació – www.alzheimercatalunya.org efernandez@alzheimercatalunya.org Degree in Psychology (University of Barcelona), Master in clinical gerontology (University of Southern California, Los Angeles). Certification in Business Administration (EADA Business School, Barcelona, 2004). Practitioner Certificate in Consulting and Change Programme from the Tavistock's Institute, 2016 (in-progress).	Since 1998 she has collaborated on several Alzheimer Catalonia projects. The tasks performed at the Foundation have been coordinating and conducting support groups for families, training professionals and family development program for people with dementia without family support. Currently developing the foundation strategic direction. Dementia Care Mapping trainer certified by the University of Bradford. She works as a consultant on several non-for profit organizations, and team development and cultural change. She is a member of the Dementia Care Mapping International Implementation Group (DCM-IIG) and the European Reminiscence Network (ERN)
Josep Vila Miravent, MSc, Catalonia, Spain.	Psychologist, older adults specialist and family therapist.	Degree in Psychology 1986 (Autonomous University of Barcelona), Master in

	License Number 3512 (Catalonia's National Council of Psychology) jvilamiravent@ub.edu	Clinical Gerontology 1992 (University of Southern California, Los Angeles), Master in systemic therapy 2009 (Autonomous University of Barcelona), Master in Systemic Organizational Coaching (Autonomous University of Barcelona), 2016 (in-progress) Currently working as a PCC consultant on several non-for profit care organizations, team development and cultural change; He is the head of Alzheimer's Catalonia family therapy service; He is a professor of psychology at the University of Barcelona, and a Dementia Care Mapping licensed trainer by the University of Bradford. He is a member of the Dementia Care Mapping International Implementation Group (DCM-IIG) and the European Reminiscence Network (ERN).
Sweden
Prof David Edvardsson, PhD, RN, Australia/Sweden	Professor of Nursing, La Trobe University, Australia Associate Professor, Umea University, Sweden	Expert member, National Guidelines for Dementia Development Committee, Swedish National Board of Health and Welfare, Member, Austin Hospital Nursing Advisory Council, Australia. Years of experience in international research on person-centred care. Member of the Gerontological Society of America, Board member of the Harvey Picker Centre for Innovation and Applied Research, USA, Advisory Board member, Buffalo University Institute for Person-centred care, USA.
UK
Caroline Baker, UK	Director of Dementia Care Barchester Healthcare Telephone: 0207 349 4405 Caroline.Baker@barchester.com	Developed PEARL (Positively Enriching And enhancing Resident's Lives) programme for large corporate organisation that has won many awards. DCM Trainer. Lifetime achievement Award in Dementia Care 2013. Author of Developing excellent Care for people Living with Dementia in Care Homes . Member of JDC advisory board. Links in Taipei, Capetown, Kerala, Johannesburg, Chicago, Peurto Rico. Member of government anti-psychotic reduction working group. Advisory member of NAPP pharmaceuticals Pain in dementia Group.
Prof Clive Ballard, UK	Professor of Age Related Diseases and Director of Biomedical Research Unit for Dementia, King's College London	Part of the TRC-D BRU-D and dementia platform national research collaborations.

		Coordinated multiple multi-centre clinical trials, cohort studies and post-mortem studies working closely with other research groups. Member of Several European Union and JPND collaborations and close links with academic and commercial collaborators in Europe and North America
Prof Dawn Brooker, CPsychol (clin) AFBPsS PhD UK	Director of the Association for Dementia Studies at University of Worcester. dementia@worc.ac.uk http://www.worcester.ac.uk/discover/professor-dawn-brooker.html Association for Dementia Studies http://www.worc.ac.uk/discover/association-for-dementia-studies.html	Active within UK in person centred research, practice and policy advice; Board member of national Dementia Action Alliance, Member of Dementia Working Group for British Psychological Society. Leads Research Centre dedicated to providing cutting edge research and education programmes to help people affected by dementia to have a good quality of life. Many years experience working with international partners to develop person centred care research and practice. Author of Person Centred Dementia Care (2007,2016) translated into 7 languages. Speaker at G7 legacy events; Member of Interdem, Founder member of North Sea Group and International DCM Implementation Group.
Prof Linda Clare PhD CPsychol UK	Professor Linda Clare Professor of Clinical Psychology of Ageing and Dementia The Centre for Research in Ageing and Cognitive Health (REACH), University of Exeter, UK http://psychology.exeter.ac.uk/reach/	Focus on maintaining cognitive health and promoting well-being in later life, living well with cognitive impairment and dementia, managing dementia-related disability, and improving quality of care for people with dementia. Chair the Dementia Advisory Group of the British Psychological Society. Longstanding international collaborations, particularly with USA, Australia and Switzerland. Founding chair of the US Alzheimer's Association ISTAART professional interest group in psychosocial understanding and intervention in dementia.
June Hennell, MBE UK	Dementia Campaigner Writer & Broadcaster Founder & Lead of Stonehouse Memory Link Member of LINK, ADS University of Worcester june@jacsplace.co.uk www.ourdementiaadventure.com	Using experience gained as a Carer, works as a volunteer with:- * ADS, The University of Worcester * The 2gether Mental Health Trust, Gloucestershire * Member & Co Chair of Carers Advisory Panel of Royal Surgical Aid Society * Carers Gloucestershire * Dementia Adventure * Innovations in Dementia * University of Gloucester * University of the West of England * NHS Gloucestershire * National Council for Palliative Care
Prof Esme Moniz-Cook	Prof Dementia Care Research -Faculty	Published many innovative academic

BSc DipClin Psyche. PhD, UK	of Health & Social Care, University of Hull, Hull, UK Hon Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Humber NHS FT E.D.Moniz-Cook@hull.ac.uk http://www.challengedemcare.com	papers and books. International research profile in psychosocial interventions and the contextual health and social care settings within which these are offered. Specialist interest in outcome measurement, developmental psychology in aging also social wellbeing in aging and dementia. Co-chair and founder member of INTERDEM. www.interdem.org
Keith Oliver, B.Ed UK	Person living with dementia, Kent & Medway NHS Trust Dementia Service User Envoy, Alzheimer's Society Ambassador keith_oliver88@hotmail.com	Speaker, activist and author on the experience of being diagnosed with dementia aged 55 and living with dementia. DEEP Member [Dementia Engagement and Empowerment Project] Active within the international dementia community, DAA National board member
Prof Martin Orrell, UK	Director of Institute of Mental Health at The University of Nottingham	Published over 200 academic papers. He is Chair of the Memory Services National Accreditation Panel (MSNAP) and a member of the Prime Ministers Challenge on Dementia Research Group. International research profile in psychosocial interventions. Board member of both INTERDEM and the International Psychogeriatric Association. He is Editor of the journal Ageing & Mental Health.
Prof Justine Schneider UK	Professor of mental health and social care. Centre for Dementia, Institute of Mental Health, University of Nottingham, UK Justine.Schneider@nottingham.ac.uk	Justine has extensive experience in applied health research using a range of approaches. Her current work focuses on dementia and workforce development; exploring innovation and knowledge exchange in dementia care through the arts. With Meeting Ground Theatre Company and Nottingham Lakeside Arts, she produced Inside Out of Mind, a research-based play about carers, which toured England in 2015. She is a Fellow of the UK School for Social Care Research, joint academic head of the TanDem doctoral training centre, a member of Interdem, a trustee of Trent Dementia, a supervisor on INDUCT, the Marie Skłodowska Curie network on technology and dementia.
Prof Graham Stokes, UK	Global Director of Dementia Care, BUPA and Honorary Visiting Professor of Person-Centred Dementia Care, University of Bradford	Strategic responsibility for person centred practice in BUPA's dementia care settings in UK, Spain, New Zealand and Australia. Active academic in behaviour that challenges. Co-chair of England's National Dementia Action Alliance and Member of the UK Government's Challenge on Dementia 2020 Meaningful Care Delivery Group. Many years international experience working in and

		presenting on dementia care. Publications translated into Spanish and Dutch. G7 legacy event speaker. Worked with ADI in Latin America and the Caribbean on National Dementia Plans.
Prof Claire Surr, PhD, UK	Professor of Dementia Studies, National Teaching Fellow School of Health and Community Studies, Faculty of Health and Social Sciences Leeds Beckett University, C.A.Surr@leedsbeckett.ac.uk	Researcher on person-centred care and dementia workforce development. National Teaching Fellow for contribution to dementia education. Member UK National Dementia Strategy Workforce Advisory Group, HEDN, expert advisory group for PAS: 1365 on Dementia Friendly Communities. INTERDEM, leading Dementia Care Mapping™ researcher, delivery of SOFI training to international inspectorates, founding member DCM™ International Implementation Group
USA
Kate Gordon, MSW USA	Policy Adviser, Alzheimer's Disease International Director, Splaine Consulting	Health Policy Analyst US Administration on Aging through the National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center. Contributor to the 2012/13 US National Plan on AD, including support to the Advisory Council on Alzheimer's Research, Care and Services. State and federal Alzheimer policy staff with US National Alzheimer's Association. Policy Adviser for ADI. Focus in Latin America, with the Pan-American Health Organization. Presented at multi-national dementia conferences on dementia policy initiatives in Uruguay, Costa Rica and Puerto Rico.
Prof Cathy Greenblat USA	Professor Emerita of Sociology at Rutgers University cathy.greenblat@gmail.com	Honorary Research Fellow at the International Observatory on End of Life Care, Lancaster University, UK from 2006-2010. She is currently an Honorary Professor at Glasgow Caledonian University and a Researcher in Human Sciences and Photographie at the Center for Memory Resources and Research (CMRR), University of Nice, France. Lectured in the USA, Latin America, Eastern and Western Europe, Russia, Africa, the Philippines, China, Australia, and Japan. Since 2002 engaged in a cross-cultural photography exhibited worldwide and at WHO, the UN and used in the G7 Legacy events Author of 15 books and more than 100 articles.
Marilyn Hartle, MSW, LCSW USA	Co-founding partner of Jentle Harts Consulting, Indiana, USA National consultant, speaker, change facilitator, author.	Advanced trainer DCM; provides consultancy to care organisations throughout US on implementation of person centred approaches in care,

	Marilyn@jentleharts.com	facilitation of change processes, leadership development of direct carers; member National Adult Day Services Association (USA) Co-author of curriculum, "Designing Excellence In Care: Interpersonal Skills for Person Centered Care". Member International DCM Implementation Group; facilitated 2 day training in person centered care for the Department of Mental Health of Singapore; conducted DCM course in Toronto, Canada.
LaDonna Jensen, R.N USA	Jentle Harts Consulting, Indiana USA Co-founding partner, consultant, speaker, change facilitator, author ladonna@jentleharts.com	Advanced trainer DCM; provides consultancy to care organisations throughout US on implementation of person centred approaches in care, facilitation of change processes, leadership development of direct carers. ; member National Adult Day Services Association (USA) Co-author of curriculum, "Designing Excellence In Care: Interpersonal Skills for Person Centered Care". Member International DCM Implementation Group; facilitated 2 day training in person centered care for the Department of Mental Health of Singapore; conducted DCM course in Toronto, Canada.
Prof Ann Kolanowski, PhD, RN, USA	Elouise Ross Eberly Professor of Nursing, College of Nursing; Professor of Medicine, College of Medicine; and Director, Hartford Center of Geriatric Nursing Excellence Penn State University University Park, Pa. 16802 814-863-9901 amk20@psu.edu	Non-pharmacological interventions for behavioral symptoms and delirium in people with dementia; Person-centered care. Member Dementia Action Alliance, Health & Well-being Committee; CMS National Partnership to Improve Dementia Care and Reduce Antipsychotic Use in Nursing Homes. Collaborations with colleagues in UK, Germany, Australia; Fellow of The Gerontological Society of America; Editorial Board Member: Journal of The American Geriatrics Society; Journal of Gerontological Nursing; and Research in Gerontological Nursing
G. Allen Power, MD, FACP, USA	Geriatrician, Author, Educator Clinical Associate Professor of Medicine, U. Rochester, New York Organisation/affiliation: G. Allen Power, Ltd. Website: www.alpower.net Email: DrAlPower@gmail.com	Award-winning author of Dementia Beyond Drugs: Changing the Culture of Care and Dementia Beyond Disease: Enhancing Well-Being, and international educator on transformational models of care for older adults, particularly those living with changing cognitive abilities.
Prof Steven R. Sabat, PhD, USA	Neuropsychologist Professor Emeritus of Psychology Georgetown University Washington, D.C. 20057 Fax: 202-687-6050	Expertise in identifying intact cognitive and social abilities in people with dementia, facilitating communication between them and care partners with a person-centred care focus, former co-

	sabats@georgetown.edu	leader of support groups for people with Alzheimer's disease. Fellow, Gerontological Society of America Member, International Psychogeriatric Association. Author of The Experience of Alzheimer's Disease: Life Through a Tangled Veil , Invited speaker at national and international Alzheimer's Society and related conferences.
--	--	---