The Hennell Award 2023/24

Celebrating innovation and excellence in dementia care

In memory of the late Brian Hennell, his wife June has kindly sponsored the Hennell Award for Innovation and Excellence in Dementia Care.

Call for nominations

The call for nominations for the 2023/24 award is now open

This award is to celebrate the achievements of an individual or team who have shown their ability to implement positive change for people living with dementia.

Who can be nominated?

The Hennell Award is open to anyone who has attended an online or in-person course facilitated by the Association for Dementia Studies. This could include:

- Courses for professional groups or organisations
- The Postgraduate Certificate in Person-Centred Dementia Studies and the individual modules within it
- The Postgraduate Award in Professional Development
- The Meeting Centres Training Course
- Championing Physical Activity course

Nominations can be made by self, colleagues, course tutors or any individuals or carers affected by dementia.

The judges base their decisions on the narrative provided on the Nomination Form and supporting information and evidence.

More information about the previous winners and their projects can be found at <http://www.worcester.ac.uk/discover/the-hennell-award.html>

Closing date: 9am, 8 July 2024

The Hennell Award 2023/24 – Nomination form

	Nominee	Nominated by (if different to nominee)
Name
Job title
Work address
Title of course attended and dates
Telephone number
Email address
Signature (required for form to be valid)

Please provide evidence to support the application below and attach additional pages as necessary:

- Explain how the nominee has made a positive change for people with dementia.
- Say why you think this change should win the award, for example is it new and innovative or perhaps a transfer of good practice into a new setting?
- Include any details of how other staff have benefitted or learned from the initiative.
- Describe particular barriers which had to be overcome to achieve a positive outcome and how this was achieved.

Please use sufficient detail so that the judges can make an assessment of the type of initiative, its impact on people living with dementia and whether the initiative is replicable elsewhere. Please also provide supporting information and evidence (e.g. written testimonials from other professionals and family members, copies of paperwork they have modified, specific examples of the work they have done, photographs of improved environments, resources and activities, etc.). Information about individuals must be anonymised and consent gained for any photographs.

Supporting information should be scanned or photographed and attached to a covering email with your nomination form. Information received after the closing date will not be considered. The judges' decision is final and communication about the outcome will not be entered into.

Please return the completed form and any supporting information or evidence by email by no later than 9am, 8th July 2024 to: dementia@worc.ac.uk
