

Information on rolling over Resource Lists for 2021/22

Dear colleagues,

Thank you for your engagement with Resource Lists to support your teaching and learning, we've seen a lot of activity with 234,668 list visits so far this academic year. We recognise what a challenging year this has been and the importance of continued support and access to online resources for our students. Please note and act upon the following important information which will ensure that your students have timely access next semester.

We are rolling over Resource Lists \(Talis Aspire\) at 4pm on Monday 17 May for the 2021/22 academic year. This is where we take your 2020/21 list and copy it to the new academic year. Do not make any changes to your lists on the above date and time until rollover is complete. An update will be made on the Resource List homepage to confirm completion.

Following rollover we can also bulk publish lists for the course or modules you teach on. Please email us with the relevant module codes and we'll take care of the publishing. You will still be able to edit and add new items after lists have been published, but please do not change any recommended for purchase or essential texts.
