Venue

The University of Worcester, City Campus, Castle Street, Worcester, WR1 3AS

In the heart of Worcester, on the site of the former Royal Infirmary, the City Campus offers you an inspiring place to live and learn.

The Georgian building where the British Medical Association was founded has been one of Worcester’s most important buildings for over 200 years.

Reopened in September 2010 as Worcester Business School, the restored Infirmary is a focal point for excellent education, a centre for the arts, a resource for businesses and a dramatic fusion of old and new architecture.
