

Travelling independently

If you are travelling independently to the University please let us know when you're arriving so we can be here to greet you!

Train

Regular trains depart from both Heathrow and Birmingham International Airport which will take you to Worcester Foregate Street (the main station in Worcester). You will need to make a simple connection – at London Paddington if you are travelling from Heathrow Airport and at Birmingham New Street if you are travelling from Birmingham airport. Costs and times vary so please see National Rail Enquiries for further details.

National Express coach

National Express is a coach company which has relatively regular departures from Heathrow and Birmingham International Airport which will take you to Crowngate bus station (the main bus station in Worcester). Costs and times vary (but services are normally cheaper than the train) so please see the National Express site for further details.

From the stations to the University

Once you have arrived at either Worcester Foregate Street train station or Crowngate bus station, you can then either:

1. Take a short walk to Foregate Street where you will be able to take a taxi to the University St Johns campus.

2. Take a bus from Crowngate bus station (bus number 31, 31B or 31E) to the University St Johns campus.
3. Walk approx. 20 minutes to the University's St Johns campus.

When you arrive please report to main reception or firstpoint.
