

Notice of right to cancel

After accepting an offer of a place you have the right to change your mind and cancel your place with the University within 14 days without giving any reason.

How to cancel

To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform the University of your decision to cancel your place by providing a clear written statement (e.g. a letter sent by post or e-mail).

Please download a cancellation form to attach to your written statement.

Our contact details are:

Admissions Office
University of Worcester
Henwick Grove

To meet the cancellation deadline you must send your right to cancel statement before the end of the cancellation period. If you cancel this contract in this way we will reimburse you any payments received from you under the contract.

We will make the reimbursement without undue delay within 14 days of receipt of your notification of cancellation where possible. We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used to pay us.

Statutory rights

The right to cancel is a statutory right under the United Kingdom's Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013.

Your statutory right of cancellation does not affect your right to withdraw from the University at other times; subject to any ongoing obligations you may have to the University as a result of your registration should you commence studies at the University.
